The HORSEMANSHIP RIDING CAMP is designed to teach beginner and intermediate riders the skills of English horse-back riding, the basics of horse care, and safety around the barn.
 Riding opportunities (twice daily) include structured lessons, trail rides and games on horseback. The campers also spend time with arts and crafts, informational and practice sessions regarding special horse care skills, and time to prepare for Friday afternoon's horse show at 1:00pm.

The YOUNG RIDER CAMP is a shorter, age-appropriate version of the Horsemanship camp. We invite observers during camp on Fri.

The TRAIL RIDING ADVENTURE CAMP includes many aspects of the Horsemanship camp, with a heavy focus on trail riding, trail safety, and a full-day lunch ride. This camp will be utilizing the many miles of the Shelby County trail system adjacent to the farm, and may even include the opportunity to help develop a trail and learn about local wetlands conservation efforts.

Campers who sign up for two weeks receive $50 discount off second week of camp. Siblings receive $25 off each child's camp.

About our program:

The Riding Academy at Shady Creek Farm offers a year-round instructional program in complete horsemanship for riders of all ages, with a special focus on taking beginner and intermediate riders to the next level through a personalized goals program. Ask for more information about our Academy programs.
