

Thank you!

To all the wonderful volunteers who joined us Saturday on volunteer work day! This group – some new and some returning volunteers – has been a big blessing to the farm. As we work to grow our program and achieve our vision of providing equine assisted therapies and riding lessons for all, the work of these volunteers is helping to make the vision come alive. If you are interested in learning about the next volunteer day, please let us know.